6. MARKETING

We strive to provide you with choices regarding certain personal data uses, particularly around marketing and advertising. We will develop and implement the following personal data control mechanisms:

6.1 PROMOTIONAL OFFERS FROM US

We may use your identity, contact details, technical, usage and profile data to form a view on what we think you may want or need, or what may be of interest to you. This is how we decide which products, services and offers may be relevant for you (we call this marketing).

You will receive marketing communications from us if you have requested information from us or purchased goods or services from us or if you provided us with your details when you entered a competition or registered for a promotion and, in each case, you have opted in for receiving that marketing.

6.2 THIRD-PARTY MARKETING

We will get your express consent before we share your personal data with any company outside the SSP group of companies for marketing purposes.

6.3 OPTING OUT USING UNSUBSCRIBE LINKS

You can ask to stop sending you marketing messages at any time by clicking the unsubscribe link sent in any email correspondence to you.

Where you opt out of receiving these marketing messages, this will not apply to personal data provided to us as a result of a product/service purchase, registration, product or service experience or other transactions.

6.4 COOKIES

Similar to other commercial websites, our website uses a technology called “cookies” (see explanation below) and web server logs to collect information about how our website is used. Information gathered through cookies and web server logs includes the date and time of visits, the pages viewed, time spent at our website and the websites visited just before and just after our website. A cookie is a very small text document, which often includes an anonymous unique identifier. When you visit a website, that site’s computer asks your computer for permission to store this file in a part of your hard drive specifically designated for cookies. Each website can send its own cookie to your browser if your browser’s preferences allow it, but (to protect your privacy) your browser only permits a website to access the cookies it has already sent to you, not the cookies sent to you by other sites.

As you browse on our website, the website uses cookies to differentiate you from other users to prevent you from seeing unnecessary advertisements or requiring you to log in more than is necessary for security. Cookies, in conjunction with our web server’s log files, allow us to calculate the aggregate number of people visiting our website and which parts of the website are most popular. This helps us gather feedback so that we can improve our website and better serve our customers. Cookies do not allow us to gather any personal information about you and we do not generally store any personal information that you provided to us in your cookies.

You can switch off all non-essential cookies through the banner at the top of our website.

7. CHANGE OF PURPOSE

We will only use your personal data for the purposes for which we collected it, unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another reason and that reason is compatible with the original purpose. If you wish to get an explanation as to how the processing for the new purpose is compatible with the original purpose, please contact us.

If we need to use your personal data for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you and we will explain the legal basis which allows us to do so.

Please note that we may process your personal data without your knowledge or consent, in compliance with the above rules, where this is required or permitted under applicable laws.

8. DISCLOSURE OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA

We may have to share your personal data with the third parties set out below for the purposes set out in the table in paragraph 7.1 above:
